

SBS was dressed as a colonial dame and SRP was dressed in top hat, white tie and tails.

13. Donated $100 to the G.A.R. Monument (in Carbondale's Memorial Park) Restoration Fund (Jay J. Sara, Chairman) on 03-21-1985, and subsequently helped raise hundreds of dollars for this important preservation activity.

14. Robert J. Tomaine and S. Robert Powell presented illustrated lectures on the history of Carbondale, anthracite mining and anthracite railroads to the members of The Century Club, Scranton, on 03-31-1985; the arrangements for these lectures were made by Mrs. Carl Tomaine, Jermyn, a member of The Century Club.

15. Together with the Pioneer Days Committee, George Wallis, President, the Society participated in all-day work sessions on 04-13-1985 and 05-25-1985, cleaning and landscaping Memorial Park. Throughout the summer of 1985, in addition, members of the Society (Susan B. Stephens, Donald W. Powell and S. Robert Powell) cleaned up, cut the grass in, and washed down Memorial Park. A concerted cleaning campaign was carried out on 07-13-1985, prior to the band concerts by the Marywood Jazz Ensemble and the Crystal Band, on 07-14-1985 and 07-16-1985, respectively, in maintaining this city park this summer, the Society was assisted by Walter Howells who, on several occasions, cut the grass in Memorial Park.

16. Henry J. Loftus, Jr., representing the Society, presented at the Carbondale City Council meeting on 04-15-1985, the Society's official position on Memorial Park and its use; this document was formulated by H.J.L. and SRP.

17. Met with Cecilia and Edmund Philbin, Archbald, on 04-24-1985, and arranged to borrow from the Philbins and have microfilmed five bound volumes of The Archbald Citizen from the period 1895-1906; these volumes of The Archbald Citizen are the only copies of this important newspaper, the editor of which was the father of Cecilia and Edmund Philbin, that are known to exist; funding for this important archival project was provided by the Carbondale Public Library.

18. The Society's President represented the Society by serving as the Master of Ceremonies for the Crystal Band's annual Spring Concert in North Pocono High School on 04-28-1985; the President subsequently served as Master of Ceremonies at the following Crystal Band concerts: Lake Lodore, 06-18-85; Green Ridge Corners, 06-30-1985; Memorial Park, Carbondale, 07-16-1985; St. Mary's Villa, Elmhurst, 07-21-1985.

19. On 04-12-1985, the Society was granted permission by the Carbondale School Board to remove from the George Washington School on South Main Street and add to its collections a wide variety of artifacts; participating in the back-breaking removal of these artifacts on 05-08-1985 were: John V. Buberniak, Henry J. Loftus, Jr., S. Robert Powell, Skip and Jim Race, Howard and Barbara Yepson.

20. The Society applied for and was awarded, on 05-17-1985, a grant of $1,350 from the Lackawanna County Cultural Affairs Commission under the 1985 Arts to the People Program; using these funds, the Society will: (1) make slides from visual materials that are currently owned by the Society; (2) mount, mat, and frame materials that are now owned by the Society; (3) acquire two original paintings of coal breakers and mining buildings by a local painter; (4) carry out a photographic inventory of existing buildings and monuments in Carbondale and the surrounding area; (5) construct exhibition panels for traveling exhibitions and displays of the Society; (6) catalogue the Society's museum holdings and produce a museum catalogue; (7) produce and print programs for exhibitions sponsored by the Society; print existing negatives in the Society's collections and therefore make the photographs in question available to the public. Thirty-two applications were submitted to the County for funding this year. The Carbondale Historical Society and the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic were tied for first place for highest funding granted; the Lackawanna County Cultural Affairs

Commission, in awarding the Society this grant, described the Society as "the leading cultural organization in the Upper Lackawanna Valley."

21. Filled with a wide variety of annuals the Society's flower boxes in the downtown Carbondale area on 05-22-1985; planted geraniums around the base of the Historical Marker in the park next to City Hall on 05-24-1985; the flowers were provided by Society members Jack Berry and Steve Oliveri (Mermelstein's); Jack Berry grew from seed two of the flats of marigolds that were planted in the boxes. The following members participated in the planting of the boxes: Jean Colville, Donald Powell, Joe Pascoe, Howard Yepson, and S. Robert Powell.

22. On 05-27-1985, the President of the Society, wearing top hat and tails, represented the Society in the annual Memorial Day Ceremonies in Memorial Park, Carbondale, and delivered an address, entitled "Remarks," to the more than 200 persons who gathered in Memorial Park to witness and to participate in the Memorial Day ceremonies; SRP's "Remarks" are presented in this issue of the NEWSLETTER.

23. On 06-03-1985, the cataloguing of the Society's holdings, under the direction of the Museum Director, John Klimkiewicz, began.

24. July 1985: the Society's Second Vice President, Henry J. Loftus, Jr., directed a fund raising project to raise funds in Carbondale for the rehabilitation of the rail line from Carbondale to Scranton; over $10,000 were raised (the $2053 that Loftus and the Society raised were matched four ways by PennDOT) under Loftus' direction in less than 10 days; a $500 grant from the city of Carbondale (Charlotte Moro, Mayor) was made to this rehabilitation effort; the Society donated $100 to this important restoration project. For having raised these funds for the rehabilitation of the rail line, the Society was given permission to have a booth at the July 5-6-7 festival at Montage to raise funds for the Society; several hundred dollars were raised by the following Society members at this three-day festival: Henry J. Loftus, Jr., Donald W. Powell, Holly A. Brown, S. Robert Powell and John V. Buberniak. See item number three in this list for a description of the Society's role in saving the rail line from Scranton to Carbondale.

25. July 1985: the Society's Secretary wrote "A Summary History of the Lackawanna Valley Railroad and Its Predecessors"; this history is presented in this issue of the NEWSLETTER. An important centennial history of the Carbondale YMCA was also written by R.J.T. in July, and a copy was presented to the Society for its library.

26. Sponsored, together with County Commissioners Alberigi, Corcoran and Luger, an open-air band concert in Memorial Park, Carbondale, by the Marywood Jazz Ensemble, William Weber, Conductor, on 07-14-1985; arrangements for this concert were made by the Society's Second Vice-President.

27. Sponsored, together with County Commissioners Alberigi, Corcoran and Luger, an open-air band concert in Memorial Park, Carbondale, by the Crystal Band, H. Earl Brink, Conductor, on 07-16-1985; arrangements for this concert were made by the Society's Second Vice President.

28. Published five issues of the Society's NEWSLETTER (1, June 1984; 1,2, August 1984; 1,3, 03-20-1985; 1,4, 05-24-1985; 1,5, 08-08-1985); in addition, a special promotional issue of the NEWSLETTER was published in January 1985. On 02-27-1985, the United States Postal Service approved the Society's application for a non-profit organization, bulk rate mailing permit, which allows the Society to do bulk mailings at the cost of about six cents per item.

NOTE: For a listing of the accomplishments of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc. in the period January 1982--August 1984, see pp. 2-4 of Volume I, Number 2 of the Society's NEWSLETTER.

CHS&M, INC. NEWSLETTER, 08-08-1985

SBS was dressed as a colonial dame and SRP was dressed in top hat, white tie and tails.

13. Donated $100 to the G.A.R. Monument (in Carbondale's Memorial Park) Restoration Fund (Jay J. Sara, Chairman) on 03-21-1985, and subsequently helped raise hundreds of dollars for this important preservation activity.

14. Robert J. Tomaine and S. Robert Powell presented illustrated lectures on the history of Carbondale, anthracite mining and anthracite railroads to the members of The Century Club, Scranton, on 03-31-1985; the arrangements for these lectures were made by Mrs. Carl Tomaine, Jermyn, a member of The Century Club.

15. Together with the Pioneer Days Committee, George Wallis, President, the Society participated in all-day work sessions on 04-13-1985 and 05-25-1985, cleaning and landscaping Memorial Park. Throughout the summer of 1985, in addition, members of the Society (Susan B. Stephens, Donald W. Powell and S. Robert Powell) cleaned up, cut the grass in, and washed down Memorial Park. A concerted cleaning campaign was carried out on 07-13-1985, prior to the band concerts by the Marywood Jazz Ensemble and the Crystal Band, on 07-14-1985 and 07-16-1985, respectively. In maintaining this city park this summer, the Society was assisted by Walter Howells who, on several occasions, cut the grass in Memorial Park.

16. Henry J. Loftus, Jr., representing the Society, presented at the Carbondale City Council meeting on 04-15-1985, the Society's official position on Memorial Park and its use; this document was formulated by H.J.L. and SRP.

17. Met with Cecilia and Edmund Philbin, Archbald, on 04-24-1985, and arranged to borrow from the Philbins and have microfilmed five bound volumes of The Archbald Citizen from the period 1895-1906; these volumes of The Archbald Citizen are the only copies of this important newspaper, the editor of which was the father of Cecilia and Edmund Philbin, that are known to exist; funding for this important archival project was provided by the Carbondale Public Library.

18. The Society's President represented the Society by serving as the Master of Ceremonies for the Crystal Band's annual Spring Concert in North Pocono High School on 04-28-1985; the President subsequently served as Master of Ceremonies at the following Crystal Band concerts: Lake Lodore, 06-18-85; Green Ridge Corners, 06-30-1985; Memorial Park, Carbondale, 07-16-1985; St. Mary's Villa, Elmhurst, 07-21-1985.

19. On 04-12-1985, the Society was granted permission by the Carbondale School Board to remove from the George Washington School on South Main Street and add to its collections a wide variety of artifacts; participating in the back-breaking removal of these artifacts on 05-08-1985 were: John V. Buberniak, Henry J. Loftus, Jr., S. Robert Powell, Skip and Jim Race, Howard and Barbara Yepson.

20. The Society applied for and was awarded, on 05-17-1985, a grant of $1,350 from the Lackawanna County Cultural Affairs Commission under the 1985 Arts to the People Program; using these funds, the Society will: (1) make slides from visual materials that are currently owned by the Society; (2) mount, mat, and frame materials that are now owned by the Society; (3) acquire two original paintings of coal breakers and mining buildings by a local painter; (4) carry out a photographic inventory of existing buildings and monuments in Carbondale and the surrounding area; (5) construct exhibition panels for traveling exhibitions and displays of the Society; (6) catalogue the Society's museum holdings and produce a museum catalogue; (7) produce and print programs for exhibitions sponsored by the Society; print existing negatives in the Society's collections and therefore make the photographs in question available to the public. Thirty-two applications were submitted to the County for funding this year. The Carbondale Historical Society and the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic were tied for first place for highest funding granted; the Lackawanna County Cultural Affairs

Commission, in awarding the Society this grant, described the Society as "the leading cultural organization in the Upper Lackawanna Valley."

21. Filled with a wide variety of annuals the Society's flower boxes in the downtown Carbondale area on 05-22-1985; planted geraniums around the base of the Historical Marker in the park next to City Hall on 05-24-1985; the flowers were provided by Society members Jack Berry and Steve Oliveri (Mermelstein's); Jack Berry grew from seed two of the flats of marigolds that were planted in the boxes. The following members participated in the planting of the boxes: Jean Colville, Donald Powell, Joe Pascoe, Howard Yepson, and S. Robert Powell.

22. On 05-27-1985, the President of the Society, wearing top hat and tails, represented the Society in the annual Memorial Day Ceremonies in Memorial Park, Carbondale, and delivered an address, entitled "Remarks," to the more than 200 persons who gathered in Memorial Park to witness and to participate in the Memorial Day ceremonies; SRP's "Remarks" are presented in this issue of the NEWSLETTER.

23. On 06-03-1985, the cataloguing of the Society's holdings, under the direction of the Museum Director, John Klimkiewicz, began.

24. July 1985: the Society's Second Vice President, Henry J. Loftus, Jr., directed a fund raising project to raise funds in Carbondale for the rehabilitation of the rail line from Carbondale to Scranton; over $10,000 were raised (the $2053 that Loftus and the Society raised were matched four ways by PennDOT) under Loftus' direction in less than 10 days; a $500 grant from the city of Carbondale (Charlotte Moro, Mayor) was made to this rehabilitation effort; the Society donated $100 to this important restoration project. For having raised these funds for the rehabilitation of the rail line, the Society was given permission to have a booth at the July 5-6-7 festival at Montage to raise funds for the Society; several hundred dollars were raised by the following Society members at this three-day festival: Henry J. Loftus, Jr., Donald W. Powell, Holly A. Brown, S. Robert Powell and John V. Buberniak. See item number three in this list for a description of the Society's role in saving the rail line from Scranton to Carbondale.

25. July 1985: the Society's Secretary wrote "A Summary History of the Lackawanna Valley Railroad and Its Predecessors"; this history is presented in this issue of the NEWSLETTER. An important centennial history of the Carbondale YMCA was also written by R.J.T. in July, and a copy was presented to the Society for its library.

26. Sponsored, together with County Commissioners Alberigi, Corcoran and Luger, an open-air band concert in Memorial Park, Carbondale, by the Marywood Jazz Ensemble, William Weber, Conductor, on 07-14-1985; arrangements for this concert were made by the Society's Second Vice-President.

27. Sponsored, together with County Commissioners Alberigi, Corcoran and Luger, an open-air band concert in Memorial Park, Carbondale, by the Crystal Band, H. Earl Brink, Conductor, on 07-16-1985; arrangements for this concert were made by the Society's Second Vice President.

28. Published five issues of the Society's NEWSLETTER (1, June 1984; 1,2, August 1984; 1,3, 03-20-1985; 1,4, 05-24-1985; 1,5, 08-08-1985); in addition, a special promotional issue of the NEWSLETTER was published in January 1985. On 02-27-1985, the United States Postal Service approved the Society's application for a non-profit organization, bulk rate mailing permit, which allows the Society to do bulk mailings at the cost of about six cents per item.

NOTE: For a listing of the accomplishments of the Carbondale Historical Society and Museum, Inc. in the period January 1982--August 1984, see pp. 2-4 of Volume I, Number 2 of the Society's NEWSLETTER.

CHS&M, INC. NEWSLETTER, 08-08-1985